VFW has service officers stationed across the nation, and on many major military bases, to help veterans and their families through the VA claims process.

VFW is an advocate for veterans' issues on Capitol Hill. VFW leaders stand before Congress to fight for what veterans, the military and our families deserve.

- Annually, VFW service officers help more than 113,000 veterans recover $1.5 billion in entitlements through one-on-one VA claims assistance.
- VFW was a guiding force in the passage of the new G.I. Bill for the 21st Century (2008), as well as every major piece of veterans' legislation passed in the 20th century and beyond.

The Tradition Lives On.

Veterans have always taken care of their own. When veterans of the Spanish-American War returned home in 1899, there was no medical care or veterans' pension. The wounded, the sick and their struggling families were left to fend for themselves. A visionary band of veterans formed what would later become the VFW. We exist to protect and defend those who have sacrificed for this nation. You've earned that.
